FUNDRAISING PACK FOR TEACHERS

HI THERE!

LET'S GET STARTED...

Thank you for choosing to support EveryYouth and make a difference in the lives of disadvantaged young people—you are amazing! To help you get started, here are some quick tips to kick things off...

WHAT MAKES YOUR PUPILS HAPPY?

There's no right or wrong way to fundraise, so why not raise money doing something your pupils will remember? Whether it's weird, wacky or just plain wonderful, there are plenty of ways you can motivate and excite your pupils.

MAKE IT SIMPLE

Whatever your challenge, start by getting in touch with one of our team (info@everyyouth.org.uk) and we can help you begin your fundraising journey. Then it's up to you to share far and wide!

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Engaging your students, parents and staff with your fundraising is vital - so tell them what it is about the cause that moves you. Keep everyone updated on progress, fundraising wins and what you learn along the way.

MAKE IT REAL

Show people what their donation will do - use the information and shining stories we share with you to highlight the real difference that supporting EveryYouth makes.

PUPIL FUNDRAISING

Some fail safe, all year round ideas that will get you started...

GET MOVING

Time to get your groove on! Organise a danceathon for your pupils. Can your school do an all day dance fest?

ALL YEARS!

SPORTS CHALLENGES

Do you want to add a charitable element to your Sports Day? Why not put on special sporting events for everyone to get involved in - staff and parents too!

BAKE SALE

Every day is better with cake, so why not organising a morning break bake sale? Everyone can take part - either as a baker, or an eater! And why not add a spot of friendly competition - who can make the tastiest - or whackiest - cake?

DECLUTTER & DONATE

Have clothes, homeware, music, books, or gadgets you no longer use? Clear them out and organize a bring-and-buy sale, donating your profits to EveryYouth!

SECONDARY YEARS (11-18)

SLEEP OUT AT SCHOOL

KAY'S STORY

"I'm Kay and when I was 17 I went through a lot of big life events. I lost my Nan and my family broke down around me until I was kicked out and made homeless.

At the time, I hadn't done well in my A-levels because of my bereavement, and I had no money saved up from helping out with the bills at home.

I found my local EveryYouth charity on a whim really. I was scrolling on Facebook and saw an advert for it, so I just sent a message to see what happens.

I met Hannah, a member of staff, and she found me a place. They helped me straight away with a lot of therapy because my mental health was awful. That really helped me overcome a death and lots of trauma.

Once I got better, my EveryYouth jobs coach helped me update my CV and showed me how to job search online. I applied to loads of job adverts and was offered an interview at a care home where I work part-time alongside my other job at the children's hospital which has been great.

When me and Edward, who I met at 1625ip, were looking to move out, there just wasn't a lot out there that we could afford. So, we decided to look for a place together and used the support from EveryYouth to get a flat outside of Bristol and commute in together.

But now, I've just found out that I've been accepted into the Navy to complete a medical and nursing route, so I'll be here, there and everywhere!

I really respect the staff that we've worked with, they have a really difficult job. The continued support throughout my journey has been super helpful. They even sorted us out with a £100 Argos voucher which was great!

When I was younger, I wasn't aware of the support that existed! Now that I work at a children's hospital, I know all about it but before that I had no idea. Without the support, I don't know where I would be.
